*One of the foundational pillars of Western civilization is its unique ability to modify itself and evolve, in essence to transform, via the espousal of a metaphysic of action as fluidic movement. European man, and the postmodern world to which he has given life in the crucible of Western civilization, arose in large part as a result of the active dynamism that radiates throughout the entirety ...

The work proceeds through stages of refinement, with the higher agent purifying the lesser substance, through gradual infusions of spiritual light distilled in the crucible of human living. During repeated tests and trials over the course of lifetimes, the soul's outer instrument becomes pure enough for the mystical union to occur, with the higher Self absorbing the lesser one.
