Becoming a Just Church is a well-written, eye-opening, paradigm-shifting, prophetic and pastoral work that has the potential to fundamentally transform the way readers—and especially white evangelical readers—think about church and engage with issues of justice.

Becoming a Just Church - InterVarsity Press

Part One of Becoming a Just Church treats the question of justice as part of Christian discipleship, that as Christians embody what it means to live well before God and with our neighbors, we mirror this to the world in a way which demonstrates what creation is meant to be like. Far from enacting a kind of agenda that seeks to dominate society, the pursuit of discipleship, Gustine
